3. Policy

Councillors who are prospective candidates or nominated candidates for State or Federal elections are required to ensure that their dual roles of candidate and Councillor are maintained separately and there is no improper use of the Councillor's position or Council resources to support their candidacy.

Councillors are elected to perform their duties in a lawful manner and must comply with relevant provisions of the Local Government Act 2020 (the Act) including the standards of councillor conduct which is prescribed in regulations 12 of the Local Government (Government and Integrity) regulations 2020. When considering standing for Federal or State Parliament, Councillors should consider these duties and requirements under the Act, including standards of conduct and potential conflicts of interest.

As a prospective or nominated candidate, a Councillor needs to ensure they continue to act with integrity, avoid potential conflicts of interest, and ensure that they do not mis use their position and Council resources.

If a Councillor intends to nominate for election to Federal or State Parliament, it is recommended that they seek independent legal advice regarding any issues which may arise in association with being a candidate whilst still a Councillor.

3.1 Councillor to Declare Candidacy in an Election

As soon as practicable after becoming an endorsed candidate or a registered political party, or publicly expressing an intention to run as an independent candidate in an election (a prospective candidate), a Councillor should advise the CEO in writing. The CEO will advise all Councillors in writing as soon as practicable. Additionally, a Councillor should declare their intended candidacy for State or Federal election at a meeting of the Council as soon as practicable after notifying their CEO in accordance with this policy.

3.2 Council Resources – Use by Councillors

Council resources, including officers and support staff, hospitality services, equipment (e.g. mobile telephones and computers), stationary and photographs taken at or for official Council business, must be used exclusively for normal Council business at all times and must not be used in connection with an election campaign.

During a period of leave leading up to the State or Federal election, Councillor candidates must return Council-issued items such as computers and mobile phones. These will be returned if the Councillor is not elected and continues to hold office as a Councillor

3.3 Improper Use of Position by Councillors

Sections 123, 125 and 126-131 of the Act prohibits Councillors from misusing or inappropriately making use of their position. A breach of sections 123 and 125 attract serious penalties, including possible imprisonment in the case of section 123.

3.4 Conflicting Roles

Prospective candidates and nominated candidates must ensure they do not act in matters where they have a conflict of roles due to being both a Councillor and a candidate and must continue to adhere to the Councillors' Code of Conduct. In order to allow transparency and achieve clear separation in roles, Councillors who have nominated as candidates for State and Federal elections should take leave of absence. This leave of absence should commence no later than the date of their nomination as a candidate with the relevant electoral commission for the election (nomination date) and conclude no earlier than when the election outcome is declared. During this period, a Councillor who is on a leave of absence should not attend meetings of the Council or otherwise act as a Councillor.

Where the Mayor is a prospective or nominated candidate in a State or Federal Election, they should take leave of absence in accordance with this section and the Deputy Mayor will perform the functions of the Mayor as prescribed in the Act, including being the principal spokesperson for Council.

A Councillor who is prospective candidate or a nominated candidate should not use Council activities, including Council meetings, events and Council related external activities in relation to their candidacy.

3.5 Social Media

Councillors who are candidates in State or Federal elections will need to maintain separate social media accounts and ensure it is clear whether comments are being made as a Councillor or prospective candidate/nominated candidate. In all cases, Councillors should avoid making comments that could damage relationships between Council and other levels of government/groups or organisation.

3.6 Media Advice and Release

No media advice or assistance will be provided in relation to election issues or in regard to publicity that involves Councillors standing as candidates.

Media releases will not refer to specific Councillors in their capacity as prospective candidates or nominated candidates. During this time, Mayor will not delegate to any Councillor who is a prospective or nominated candidate any responsibility to represent them.

Councillors will not use their position as an elected representative or their access to Council staff and other Council resources to gain media attention in support of an election campaign for a Councillor who is standing for election.

Photos of and references to Councillors standing as candidates will only feature in Council's publications where this is related to usual Council business, functions or events.

3.7 Councillor Candidates Commenting on Council issues

Where a Councillor comments on Council issues as a candidate in an election, the Councillor should clearly identify this fact. Councillors should seek independent advice relating to any legal implications which may arise as a result of such comments.

3.8 Advocacy by Council

It is recognised that the community expects that Council will advocate prior to a State or Federal election for actions and projects for the benefit of the Ararat Rural City Council community.

In undertaking advocacy, Council will avoid “party political” positions and will instead advocate in an apolitical manner, for the benefit of the Ararat Rural City Council community.

3.9 Councillor/Officer Protocols

Established communication protocols will apply. Where required, the CEO will review if any additional provisions are required.

3.10 Successful Election

Candidates are required to resign from Council if they are successfully elected into State or Federal parliament in accordance with section 34(2)(a) of the Local Government Act 2020. This requirement occurs immediately following the announcement of the election result, at which point they become a member of parliament and are therefore incapable of continuing as a Councillor. Penalties for non-compliance apply where a successful Councillor candidate does not resign upon becoming a member of parliament.
